Born and raised just outside of Toronto Canada, I started singing at the age of four. Publicly I started performing at the age of seven. I have performed in over 350 events across Ontario, Quebec and the USA. I also enjoy acting and dancing and had the pleasure of participating in Shiloh's music video "Operator" back in 2009.

Some of the highlights in my career include, performing and winning three singing competitions. Upon winning Future Star in 2006, I had the honor of singing a duet with Ryan Malcolm who is a Canadian singer best known as the winner of the first season of Canadian Idol. I've also had the opportunity of sharing the stage at different events with such artists as The Nylons, Shawn Desman, Michael Burgess, Fefe Dobson and many others.

I have two CDs to my credit, the first being "Azul" which was released in the Portuguese Community in 2002, and in July of 2006 I released a four song EP entitled "The Singles".

In 2009 I had the opportunity of working with Carl Costa of Coviative Entertainment Group out of Boston, and this year will be recording new music.
